Notes

Competitors should not enter more than 3 events. All events are subject to four to enter & three to row. Events may be amalgamated if sufficient numbers are not available.

The regatta is using the new competition structure, if sufficient numbers are available for each event, these may be split by ranking points.

For Generation Doubles, there must be a minimum of 15 years between each crew member. If sufficient numbers are available races will be offered for same gender (all male / all female) and mixed gender. These entries must be submitted by email (to brian.webb@email.com) by official close on supplied entry form and paid for on the day.

For masters events please enter all crew as master's 'A'. Events will be raced by ranking points, with no handicap.

This regatta is to replace the event that was cancelled in April due to the high river level at Chester-le-Street, in order to make it more competitive we have shortened the length of the course and reduced the entry fees.

Chester-le-Street Regatta will be using the British Rowing on-line entry system (BROE2). All entry fees must be paid on-line by Saturday 1st September for crews to be included in the draw.
No e-mail (except for Generation Double events), postal or telephone entries allowed.
All enquiries to Brian Webb (Regatta Secretary CLS ARC) – Tel 07722 793971 or email at brian.webb@email.com

ENTRY FEES Per Seat - Coxes Free
Events for all ages
